YQQ and WestJet Vacations giving away a free trip for two to Mexico

For the very first time since opening its doors, the Comox Valley Airport is delighted to announce an amazing trip contest to thank our passengers for starting their journeys at YQQ.

Starting on November 7, stay locked on 97.3 The Eagle, for your chance to win a fabulous all-inclusive trip to the Occidental Grand Nuevo Vallarta, courtesy of WestJet Vacations. The contest follows on the heels of Saturday's Fiesta send-off party for the first Mexico bound passengers of the winter season. WestJet flight 2180 left the ground with a full load of passengers bound for sun, fun and sand in Puerto Vallarta.

"We are pleased to partner with WestJet Vacations to offer this one-of-a-kind opportunity for our passengers," said YQQ CEO Fred Bigelow. "The Comox Valley Airport has been offering seasonal service to Mexico since 2004. This route remains extremely popular with central and northern Vancouver Island residents who wish to minimize their travel time by flying direct from YQQ."

The contest winner will enjoy a trip for two with a seven night stay at the incredible, all-inclusive Occidental Grand Nuevo Vallarta - a Trip Advisor Certificate of Excellence winner. The prize includes: flights, hotel, unlimited food and drinks, poolside chaise lounges and towel service, daily and nightly entertainment, tennis court, aquasports, kayaking and more.

This contest opens on November 7, 2012. Visit www.973theeagle.com to find out how to enter.

To book your direct flight and/or vacation package to Puerto Vallarta from YQQ, visit www.westjet.com and click on the "vacations" tab at the top of the page.
